By ILENE ALLISON

North Torrance Elementary School is brightly lighted these nights as scores of adults enroll in the various classes of... Tuesday evening finds many a lady putting the fancy touches to a cake under the watchful eye of the very capable Mrs. Meta Betts. While next door the hum of saws and hammers denote the excellent work being done with wood. Mr. Ackerman holds classes for both men and women. Thursday evening Mrs. Woodin teaches the beautiful art of ceramics. The popular art of lampshade making is carried on by Dorothea LeMonger at McMaster Hall on Thursday mornings. Classes are full and this is a sure indication that the Adult Education program is appreciated if participation means anything. Better looking yards are sure to appear in this vicinity if Mr. Spaulding has anything to do with it, as enthusiastic gardeners fill this class in landscape and gardening held on Thursday evenings.

Mr. Jeff Isaacson, 17326 Glenburn Ave., entertained 18 of the local small fry set at a most elaborate outdoor party in honor of his fourth birthday this week. Feeling quite grown-up in spite of the fact that they were escorted by their mommies, the group dressed in party style and arrived for the event to find the mode of the day was western. The cake supported a bustin' bronco with even the coral Candy was hidden over the yard but not for long, as these pint-sized super-sleuths went to work. Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Isaacson.

Balloons and life savers brought the crowd closer together at the wicker roast given by the Stitch and Chatter Club at the Ferralolos, 2620 W. 175th St. The gaily lasted for many an hour as these 28 enjoyed both the company and the food.

The Wendell Towell household was filled with well-wishers as birthday time came for Wendell this Saturday. Games revealing many talented friends were played. The evening was finished with a card game. Barbecued hamburgers, potato salad and nut bread were served. Those couples gathered at the Ernannita address included Mr. and Mrs. A. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanchfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gastelum, Mr. and Mrs. B. Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Crumbly, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brannett, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. E. Karis.

Mrs. Paul Huffman, 17089 Faysmith Ave., entertained the Canasta Club Friday with a most enjoyable evening of cards. Walking away with first prize was Mrs. Emma Fagnano while Mrs. Jerry Bronson took the booty. Those agreeing that the apple strudel and ice cream was the best ever, were Mmes. J. Alford, R. Schultz, E. Black, J. Schindele, A. Hoffman, E.

Fagnano, J. Bronson and M. Smith. The Albert Pesolas, 17086 Faysmith Ave., gave a party "just because" Saturday evening that brought out neighbors on their street as well as several others en masse for one of the most entertaining evenings in some time. The rugs were rolled up and dancing ensued that would have made the Arthur Murray finalists envious! Sandwiches of various kinds appeared with huge cups of coffee.

The ladies on Faysmith honored Mrs. Harold Wright on her birthday for a get-together. The hostess for the affair was Mrs. Paul Hoffman, who served angel food cake and ice cream to the crowd gathered to greet Mrs. Wright.

Very proud parents are the T. Kelleys, 17220 Della Ave., and the Robert Paynes, 2060 W. 160th St., and well they should be, for their daughters Patsene Kelley and Mary Louise Payne won first places in the weekly variety talent show at Gladys Rubins. The girls won with a rope-tap routine and appeared again the following week with the dance. The girls also appeared at the Pomona Fair Tuesday, Sept. 29, dancing on the stage for the variety show. A watch was presented to them for placing first in the competition.

Today is the day for the North Torrance Elementary School PTA paper drive. Now is the time to clean out the garage!

JOHN F. HOGAN Announces Sale

Paint Co. Moves To Larger Store

A gigantic sale today, tomorrow and Saturday will celebrate the relocation of John's Paint and Window Shades store from 1313 Post Ave. to 1413 Cravens, the building formerly occupied by the Crest Furniture Co., according to Owner John F. Hogan. The new building offers a greater floor area and because of this a wider variety of paint and wallpaper products can be offered, Hogan says. "Our sale will offer great reductions in paint and wallpaper, and we hope the public will take advantage of it," Hogan added.

Marine Deserter Admits Passing 24 Bogus Checks

A confessed Marine deserter was arraigned Monday in South Bay Municipal Court after signing a statement admitting passing 24 bogus checks in Torrance and the greater South Bay area. Picked up by Redondo Beach police on a routine charge, Willis Allen Taylor, 22, was turned over to Naval authorities and held for Torrance police for passing four forged checks at a liquor store on 182nd St. and Hawthorne Blvd. At the arraignment, Taylor was scheduled for a preliminary hearing yesterday, but waived it and will be sentenced in Superior Court. Sgt. K. H. Friberg of the local police picked Taylor up at the Marine Barracks on Terminal Island. Taylor signed a confession stating that he was a Marine deserter and stating the amounts and locations of 24 bogus checks. On the list were stores in Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Hawthorne, Manhattan Beach, Torrance and other Bay cities. He listed his occupation as a truck driver and home town as Los Angeles.

CLARK (Crenshaw and Compton Bldgs.) MARKET Offer Savings on Top-Grade Meat

Clark Markets Offer Savings In Meat Sale

The enthusiastic response of thousands of customers to the Clark Supermarkets meat sale has prompted the officials of Clark Supermarkets to once again offer these tremendous savings on wonderful meat to their customers, according to Jimmy Keele, meat supervisor and buyer. "Here at Clark Markets our policy over the years of selling only top grades of U. S. Government inspected meat at absolutely the lowest prices has resulted in such a tremendous volume that we have put into effect a policy of only straight carload buying. This in turn has made it possible for Clark Supermarkets to cut meat prices even still further. Our thousands of satisfied customers eloquently testify to the fact that our meat is the same top quality as always. "Also, as always, our wonderful meat is well trimmed and scientifically aged to perfection. The only difference is in the retail big savings policy. For nutritional values and as a health and body builder, there is no substitute for fine quality meat. Clark Supermarkets is making it possible for our customers to purchase adequate supplies of this most important of all food items," concluded Keele.

Early Evening Darkness Dangerous for Drivers

Watch out when it's dark out! With clocks turned back to standard time and with resulting early darkness, the California Highway Patrol today urged all drivers and pedestrians too, to heed this warning. "Traffic accident figures show that the hours of dusk and early evening darkness are the most dangerous to motorists and pedestrians. "Show Best Rabbits" Announcement of winners in the rabbit department of Los Angeles County Fair, whose 1953 season will end Oct. 4, revealed the names of D. C. White, 229 E. Carson St., who showed the best of breed in the class for silver black martens.

Famous Wheat Tithing Film To be Shown

Perry Hayden, the "Quaker Miller" of Tecumseh, Mich., who planted a cubic inch of wheat in 1940 that grew in six years to cover 2666 acres of land, producing a harvest of 72,150 bushels of wheat, worth $150,000, appears with the late Henry Ford in the world-famous, color-sound film "God Is My Landlord," to be shown at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, Sunday night, Oct. 4. There will be no admission charged. The inspiration for Mr. Hayden's experiment was the text of a sermon, John 12:24, preached Sept. 29, 1940, which spoke of wheat. It attracted the attention of Hayden, head of a milling firm of Tecumseh, an active layman and an enthusiastic tither. He decided to "take God at His word and see what would happen" by planting, harvesting and tithing wheat. That very week Hayden planted one cubic inch of wheat seed, 360 kernels, on a tiny plot of land, 4 by 8 inches, furnished by the late Henry Ford. He determined to pay a tithing of the crop, as commanded in Malachi 3:10, and to plant the remaining nine-tenths, repeating this for 6 years as God commanded in Leviticus 25:3. The 1941 harvest was one quart; the 1952 crop, 70 pounds; the 1943 harvest, 16 bushels; the 1944 harvest, 370 bushels. The fifth harvest in 1945 amounted to 5555 bushels, all grown on land furnished by Henry Ford, who said, "This will go around the world." The sixth and final harvest in 1946 required 2666 acres of land supplied by Christian farmers of 30 denominations, Protestant and Catholic, and multiplied to 72,150 bushels of "dynamic kernels" of wheat. Robert Ripley stated that if the project were continued until 1950, it would have required all the land in the United States, and by 1953 would have covered the globe. The film "God Is My Landlord," taken over a 6-year period, is packed with human interest, and graphically depicts what has been called the "greatest tithing demonstration in all history." The public is cordially invited.
